She stated that her and her older son went by and seen the truck parked. She told to get the truck back. told he would "torch it" before he would give it back, and told her that he wouldn't drive it but would like to continue to pay on it so that he could purchase it. He stated he only needed a couple of weeks to get the money together.

Half way through Jan, she messaged to see when he was going to finish paying for the truck or they would have to repo it. He is currently driving it with no insurance or tags and still haven't finished paying for it.
